

Human Rights in Myanmar

Volume-1, No-61

2nd July 2024

American Congressmen form the Burma Caucus for Myanmar Affairs

The Congressional Burma Caucus was formed on June 27 in Washington, United States, by members of parliament who are interested in Myanmar issues as an effort to gain a better understanding of Myanmar issues in the two houses of Congress and develop effective and beneficial policies. Union Minister for the Ministry of Human Rights of the National Unity Government, U Aung Myo Min and Deputy Minister for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the National Unity Government, U Moe Zaw Oo attended on the occasion.

As the Co-Chair of the group, Mr. Bill Huzinga (R-MI) said in his speech that he is trying to enact the Bringing Real Accountability Via Enforcement in Burma (BRAVE Burma Act) as soon as possible.

The bill includes provisions that will effectively strengthen the sanctions imposed by the US government on the terrorist military, and that the terrorist military junta from Myanmar will harm the civilian population and businesses and organizations that support the intentional attacks to cause death and destruction are also subject to legal action through the US President, including submissions for financial and economic sanctions.

On the occasion, they also said the participation of multi-party parliamentarians

Dear people,

Whether or not he was violated in his own human rights. Whether or if there are human rights violations around you, effective action is required. To seek justice, you can file a complaint with the Ministry of Human Rights of the National Unity Government - NUG - MOHR. When making a complaint, it is important to have accurate and valid information, so when sending a complaint –

- Who/which organization commits it?
- Who/what are the perpetrators?
- Where did it happen?
- When did it occur?
- What crime did you commit?
- What kind of offense did you commit?

It is necessary to have as much information as possible.

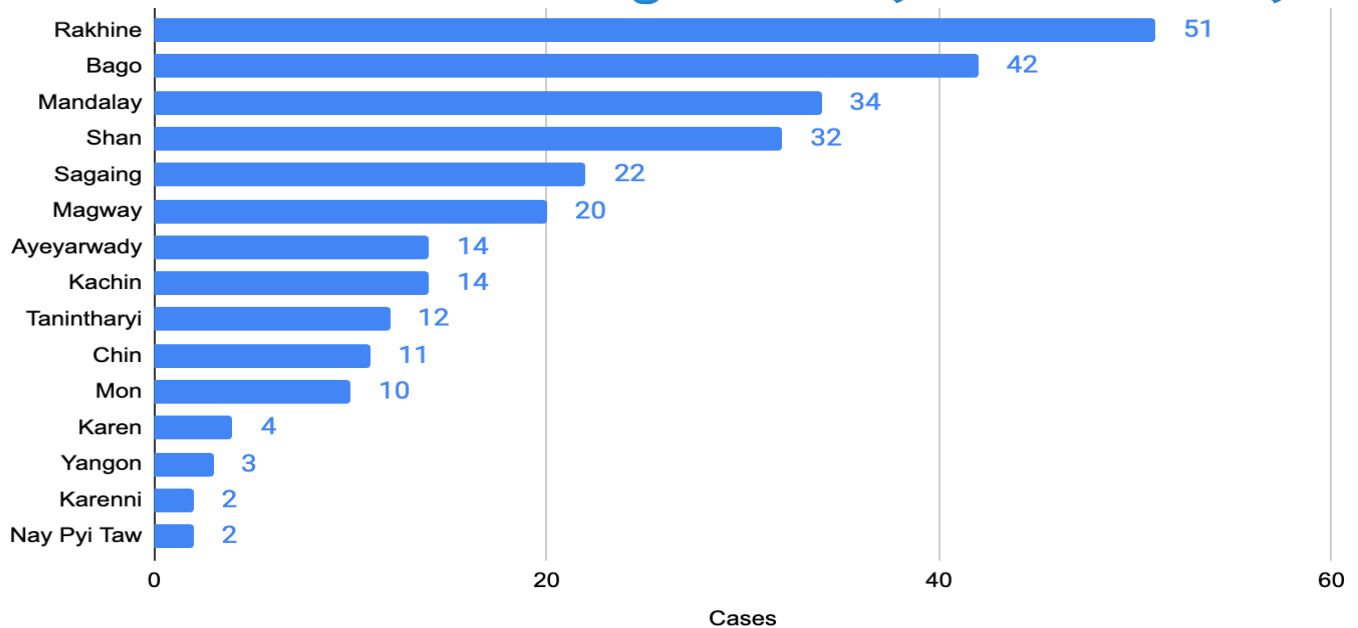

MOHR will organize the complaint records in an orderly manner and will do its best to achieve justice. The complaint was sent via the Ministry of Human Rights - MOHR's Facebook page. Or you may send a complaint to the email address report@mohr.nugmyanmar.org

A documentation of human rights violations between June 16th June 30th

Human rights violations committed by the terrorist military junta's forces in states and regions from June 16th to 30th June

Deputy Minister participates public meeting in Melbourne

June 26th

A public meeting was conducted in Melbourne, Australia, with Union Minister for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the National Unity Government, Daw Zin Mar Aung and Deputy Minister for the Ministry of Human Rights of the National Unity Government, Khon Bahan Htan. They frankly discussed topics related to the Spring Revolution.

The Myanmar ethnic community living in Melbourne attended the public meeting, which included activities such as traditional ethnic dances and singing revolutionary songs.

Union Minister attends the NED Democracy Award-2024

The Union Minister for the Ministry of Human Rights of the National Unity Government, U Aung Myo Min and Deputy Foreign Minister for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the National Unity Government, U Moe Zaw Oo attended the National Endowment for Democracy's annual ceremony and the 2024 NED Democracy Awards held in the United States, on June 14th.

The Union Minister presented the award on behalf of NED to Senate Republican Leader Lieder Mitch McConnell (R-KY), who was honored with the NED Democracy Awards.

The truth is coming out, and the junta is losing ground

The VPN shutdown has just started. Our country has already banned and restricted internet access. That being said, it's a violation of a fundamental human right: the ability to access information, as well as the right to free expression. Previously, they shut off the internet. Later, they use jamming and blockades to gain easy access to the internet. They do frequently such kind of manner. However, we also have a habit of generating something when we don't have it. So, to make it harder to determine who is using the Internet, we utilize a VPN, which is free to use and report on Facebook. Now they are attacking VPNs again.

For fining, arrests have been made. This is due to the fact that getting the first information is the goal of restricting this. Once more, the world immediately knows about their actions as a terrorist military junta. The people are putting out accurate information, demanding legitimacy and acknowledgment, and demonstrating that the nation is excellent and that elections are needed. As a result, the world is no longer willing to believe what they are saying. They want to be in charge of it. At the same time, after controlling the country, everything is as gorgeous as North Korea. They want to publish their own version of the news, which is all nice and wonderful, but the VPN is currently blocked.

-U Aung Myo Min (Union Minister, Ministry of Human Rights, National Unity Government), an excerpt from the Human Rights Barometer episode 42 features "VPN blockade in Myanmar and its adverse impacts" (the Ministry of Human Rights and the Mizzima News agency collaborate to broadcast this program).

Meeting with top leader from US Department of State and NUG officials

June 22nd

Regarding the Myanmar issue, one of the US Department of State's high-ranking officials, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor, Mr. Robert S. Gilchrist and The Union Minister for the Ministry of Human Rights of the National Unity Government, U Aung Myo Min, and the Deputy Minister for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the National Unity Government, U Moe Zaw Oo, met at the US Department of State on June 22nd.

During the meeting, the Union Minister highlighted Myanmar's current human rights situation, including the worsening airstrikes, particularly targeted terrorist assaults on civilians in Rakhine State by terrorist military junta forces. He urged the US government to take further action against the terrorist military junta and to provide direct and useful assistance to Myanmar's people.

Moreover, they discussed how to provide direct assistance as soon as possible to those who fled due to the systematic human rights and humanitarian crisis committed by the terrorist military junta, as well as to the new generation of youths who fled owing to the forced military conscription laws.

The US Department of State has pledged to stand with Myanmar's people and provide more effective action and support.

Ministry of Human Rights reports that 275 incidents related to torture

June 26th

The Ministry of Human Rights of the National Unity Government (NUG) announced that, as part of its policy, it has documented human rights violations committed by the terrorist military juntas and has received up to 275 incidences of torture.

The country's ongoing armed conflict has led to more serious violations of human rights, and the relevant ministries of the National Unity Government are managing each sector individually for those who have suffered various forms of violations.

monasteries: Taungpaw and Taungouk. The revolutionary forces took the Taungpaw monastery and another location where trenches were built and docked. They wrongfully bombed the Taunouk monastery. 17 civilians were died, and were identified by name and age.

A 5-year-old child, a monk, and eight other people were hurt in the accident. So far, the 77th Light Infantry Division, which has between 20 and 30 members, has detained 20 people at the monastery. They frequently had 40 or 50 members stationed.

- Ko Yaung Ni (Indaw Revolution - IR team)

In an interview with Ko Yaung Ni, a member of the Indaw Revolution - IR team, the issue of the June 22 terrorist military junta's attack on Nantha Monastery in Indaw Township, Sagaing Region, was the deaths of 17 civilians, including monks who were being held as human shields.

Figures as a result of a military coup

5, 341 (2,000)

During the Spring Revolution, which arose in response to the military coup on February 1st, 2021, a total of 5,341 pro-democracy activists and civilians lost their lives as of June 28th, 2024. There are also around 2,000 victims whose identities are still being investigated and need to be confirmed.

26, 936

A total of 26,936 political activists and civilians were detained by the terrorist military junta from the time of the coup until June 28th, 2024, and 20,654 of them are still being held imprisoned. Of these, 9,232 have been sentenced to prison for various arbitrary offenses by terrorist military junta's courts.

167 - 43

As a result of the spring revolution against the military coup, the terrorist military junta executed up to 167 people, and 124 people are still detained in prisons across the country, including 43 were sentenced death penalty for taking matters into their own hands after engaging in the Spring Revolution.

Religious Sector- 43

The terrorist military junta's forces are conducting acts of violence throughout the country; between the coup d'état in 2021 and June 28, 2024, 43 people died in the religious sector, with 14 killed in 2024. Of those who died, 17 were killed by military airstrikes and 12 by gunfire.

Myingyan Sakhama- Terrorist Military Junta + Militia

The Venerable Sayadaw U Uttama @ Kyawthu from Sakhama Village Monastery in Myingyan Township of Mandalay Region, who drove an ambulance labeled by the Ward Social Assistance Association for an emergency patient from the village transported to Myingyan township on June 22 at about 9:30 p.m., was shot in the head and killed on the spot by terrorist military junta forces and militias hiding near the town's exit.

Reference: AAPP

CODE OF CONDUCT

Soldier's Rules

Showing ideal leadership, Leaders command the followers/soldiers fairly indiscriminately.